10th Annual Houston Dragon Boat Festival

Started: Saturday, May 1, 2010
Ended: Saturday, May 1, 2010

Becoming an internationally popular sport, dragon boat racing has hit the waters of downtown Houston! Throughout the day's racing, a celebration of Asian culture takes place in Sugar Land with food, entertainment, and activities for the whole family.

At the Houston Dragon Boat Festival, teams of 25, including a steersman, a drummer, 20 paddlers, and 3 alternates, can enter this exciting competition, which involves 250-meter sprints in traditional Hong Kong-style dragon boats.
